

SUDHAKAR GABRIEL

*Multi-Generational Planner
Financial Structure Innovator*

Sudhakar Gabriel is a pioneer in the field of multi-generational wealth planning. He is a forerunner in the development of innovative financial solutions & services. He has added tremendous value with his unique financial structures and approach. He has 22 years of financial services expertise and has spoken at The Premier Association of Financial Professionals in the United States and Singapore.

Sudhakar Gabriel is an internationally recognized estate planning advisor who is known for his innovative and ground breaking financial solutions for the wealthiest individuals across the world. As a result of his contributions to the financial services industry, he has received numerous awards and recognitions.

Throughout his career, Sudhakar has held honorary-appointments with educational enterprises and faith-based and nonprofit organizations. Currently, he is serving as a Board Member at HBI.

Sudhakar is a true inspiration and a valuable asset to the financial services industry. With an unwavering commitment to serve families and individuals, he continues to make a positive impact on the lives of those around him, and his contributions will undoubtedly be felt for generations to come.

In terms of professional and personal references, he has worked with individuals who have held the positions listed below in the past and present.

- The CEOs of several multinational corporations relied on his advice when structuring complex cross-border transactions and managing their personal investments.
- The head of numerous affluent families have hired Sudhakar Gabriel to create a thorough estate plan that would guarantee tax efficiency for several generations and safeguard their assets.
- Numerous thriving business people have collaborated closely with Sudhakar Gabriel to create unique investment portfolios and put unique succession planning techniques into practice.
- Sudhakar Gabriel has been consulted by numerous startup and venture capitalist funds for advice on equity compensation schemes, fundraising tactics, and exit or succession planning.
- Many different high net worth families have used Sudhakar Gabriel's creative ideas to tailor their plans so that it aligned with their priorities and values.

sudhakar@sudhakargabriel.com